Software Engineer

✂ Turning Ideas into Scalable Web Solutions Technology excites me! From crafting dynamic frontends to designing scalable backends, I thrive on bringing ideas to life with code. As a Computer Science student specializing in Full-Stack Development, I enjoy solving real-world problems through Python, JavaScript, Angular, and Django. ✂ My journey has been all about building, learning, and iterating. From developing a fully functional Spotify clone to working on a Netflix landing page, I've sharpened my skills in frontend frameworks, backend logic, and database management. My recent internship at Naresh IT deepened my expertise in REST APIs, database optimization, and full-stack applications, making me industry-ready. ✂ Beyond coding, I'm passionate about personal branding, networking, and career growth. I actively seek opportunities to collaborate on impactful projects and contribute to open-source communities. ✂ Let's connect! Whether you're looking for a developer, a collaborator, or a tech enthusiast to exchange ideas with, I'd love to chat.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Naresh IT

Python Full-Stack Developer Trainee – Naresh IT
